

Apple Creek Farm

Apple Creek Farm has been in Bowdoinham & Bowdoin since 1985. The Galles primarily focus on pasture-based and grass-fed sheep and beef cows. Additionally, they have eggs from free-range hens, organic geese & broilers, goats, hay and firewood.

Fishbowl Farm

Chris Cavendish and Gallit Sammon grow organic vegetables on 18 acres on Merrymeeting Bay. They are committed to producing healthful, nutritious and safe food of the highest quality while protecting the integrity of our environment.

Gruff Acres Farm

Diana and Dale Mosher started Gruff Acres Farm as a hobby when they entered retirement. Now they raise chickens and goats and make cheeses.

Left Field Farm

Left Field Farm is in its first full year of production. Farmer Sean Hagan grows organic produce and cut flowers on 7-acres along Merrymeeting Bay.

Six River Farm

Six River Farm is an organic vegetable farm run by Nate Drummond and Gabrielle Gosselin. They grow 11-acres of mixed vegetables, berries, herbs and cut flowers, along the shores of Merrymeeting Bay.

Stonecipher Farm

Stonecipher Farm is an organic farm located on 55-acre property that has been preserved as a Forever Farm. Ian Jerolmack grows vegetables and herbs, raises chickens and recently added 10 goats to the farm.
